University of Wisconsin, Madison

2. President's Remarks

President Russell Ahn noted that after 8 years as president, these were his last championships. He was proud to leave on a strong note, a strong medal performance at the Taipei Universiade, but most of all he was proud of the scholar-athletes who perform with so much academic excellence while competing in taekwondo.

It was agreed to revisit the question of a 2020 host at the fall/winter meeting.

6. 2019 Summer World University Games Discussion

President Ahn, who is also FISU Technical Delegate, noted that there were many challenges with athlete housing, but that the taekwondo athletes were housed in an excellent hotel venue. He said he would be traveling for a site inspection shortly. Despite the restriction in number of athletes per country, the event is shaping up to be the largest taekwondo event at the Universiade yet with over 750 athletes, including many world class athletes.

7. Election

Dan Chuang of MIT was unanimously elected the next president of the NCTA by all present.

8. Open discussion

Coach Ghormley noted that regional championships continue to be a good initiative to pursue.

9. Meeting Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned by unanimous consent.
