National Collegiate Taekwondo Association Sparring Athlete Selection Procedures 2024 FISU America Games

February 13, 2024

I. SELECTION SYSTEM

A. Provide the minimum eligibility requirements for an athlete to be considered for nomination to the Team:

1. Must be a U.S. citizen by the time of their entry into 2024 US Collegiate Taekwondo Team Trials for sparring.
2. Per IF standards, athletes must be black belts.
3. Only the competitors who satisfy the following conditions may take part in a FISU sporting event:
  - Be a national of the country they represent;
  - Be 18-25 years old (athlete's age on Dec. 31, 2024);
  - Students who are officially registered for and pursuing at least a half-time course of study at a university or similar institute whose status as a university is recognized by the appropriate national academic authority of their country;
  - Former students of the institutions mentioned in the third bullet point who have obtained their academic degree or diploma in the year preceding the event (i.e. 2023).

B. Provide a brief summary outlining how an athlete is selected as a nominee to the Team.

The 2024 Collegiate Team Trials will be held to determine the 2024 FISU America Games Taekwondo team nominees. The date and location of this event will be April 12, 2023 in Berkeley, California.

Details of this competition will be posted at the NCTA website (ncta-usa.com).

The format will be single-elimination for divisions of five (5) or more entrants and double elimination for divisions of four (4) or fewer entrants. The winners from the single-elimination and double-elimination rounds will be considered the 2024 winners and will serve as the 2024 FISU America Games Taekwondo team nominee. The entrant in second place (the runner up) will be considered the B-team member and alternate should the winner not be able to serve as the 2024 FISU America Games team member.

If neither the 1st place nor the 2nd place team from the sparring fight off is able to serve on the 2024 FISU America Games team, then it will be at the discretion of a selection committee whether or not an entrant for said division will be included on the US team competing at the 2024 FISU America Games. The committee will consist of: the NCTA President, a sparring athlete representative, and a sparring coaching representative.

C. Tryout Events:

1. Provide the event names, dates and location of all trials, events and/or camps to be used as part of the selection process.

There will not be any tryout events (i.e. camps or competition) for 2024 FISU America Games Taekwondo team.

D. Provide a comprehensive, step-by-step description of the method that explains how athletes will go through the selection process to become team nominees.

Consistent with the 16 weight divisions for the 2024 FISU America Games:

1. The format will be single-elimination for divisions of five (5) or more entrants and double elimination for divisions of four (4) or fewer entrants. The winners from the single-elimination and double-elimination rounds will be considered the 2024 winners and will serve as the 2024 FISU America Games Taekwondo team nominee. The entrant in second place (the runner up) will be considered the B-team member and alternate should the winner not be able to serve as the 2024 FISU America Games team member.
2. Seeding for the 2024 US Collegiate Taekwondo Team Trials for sparring will be in accordance with the most current USA Taekwondo Tusah rankings at the time of the team trials.

If a berth in the seeding is vacant or a qualified athlete is not competing, the athletes seeded below that berth would be moved up until there are no vacant positions in the final seeding for each weight division.

National Collegiate Taekwondo Association Code of Conduct

The following outline is the Code of Conduct for the National Collegiate Taekwondo Association. The Code is for all athletes, coaches, tournament committee members, referees, and staff members to fully abide by when participating in any and all NCTA event(s). Failure to comply with the following guidelines can result in the removal from an event, dismissal from future NCTA events, and/or the complete suspension from participation as a competitor, coach or staff member in future NCTA events.

1. One will act in a manner, consistent with the spirit of fair play and responsible conduct.
2. One will acknowledge, respect and adhere to the authority of NCTA Taekwondo appointed event staff, tournament staff, and team leader(s) if necessary.
3. One will fully comply with the NCTA, USA Taekwondo, the United States Olympic Committee (USOC), and the World Taekwondo (WT) uniform requirement.
4. One will maintain an appropriate level of fitness to promote optimal athletic performance.
5. One will refrain from the excessive use of performance-limiting drugs, including, but not limited to, tobacco and alcohol.
6. One will refrain from using any substance on the Olympic Movement Anti-Doping Code, as enforced by USADA.
7. One will abide by the policies and rules established by the NCTA, USA Taekwondo, the USOC and World Taekwondo (WT).
8. One will respect others, including coaches, competitors, officials, and spectators.
9. One will not engage in, nor tolerate, any form of verbal, physical or sexual abuse.
10. One will respect the property of others.
11. One will refrain from illegal or inappropriate behavior that would deter from a positive image of oneself and the NCTA.
12. One will maintain a positive attitude and act in a way that will bring honor to oneself, the staff, the sport of Taekwondo, the NCTA, and the United States of America.
13. One will remember that I am an ambassador of the NCTA, my country and the Olympic movement.

The National Collegiate Taekwondo Association recognizes that this Code does not establish a comprehensive set of rules that prescribes every aspect of appropriate behavior.
